

High School in America 2019-20 Program FAQ Brochure

1. Youth Exchange section

- a. "Exchange programs grew from a desire for nations and their peoples to build bridges of understanding after World War II. Since then, youth exchange has grown and gained popularity in many countries throughout the world, including yours! Youth exchange is successful because teenagers have the opportunity to learn about another country and culture by living as a member of a host family, not as a guest. By sharing their daily activities, people have the chance to learn substantively about each other's lives and cultures. Exchange participants gain lifelong friendships and a "second family" in another part of the world. Youth exchange creates the possibility for positive impact with the student's peers, schools, communities, parents, and ultimately, relationships among nations. Many of today's leaders have themselves participated in an exchange experience and can attest to its positive impact on their lives."

2. What is the High School in America Program?

9. What should you consider before applying to the program?

- a. Students who are interested in the program should consider whether taking part in a year-long exchange program may have an adverse impact on their academic or personal future. Things to consider include but are not limited to:
 - i. Will I have to repeat a year of school after returning home?
 - ii. Will I be home too late in 2020 to take final school examinations/university/institute entrance examinations? Program participants return to their home countries in late May and June 2020.
 - iii. Will I be required to serve in the military upon return to my home country?
 - iv. Will I be eligible to graduate with honors at my home school?
 - v. Certain classes needed for school in my home school are not available in US high schools.
 - vi. Depending on the school and state, you may not be eligible to participate in competitive athletic competitions due to local and state regulations.
- b. Finally, although students attend a U.S. high school, the curriculum is substantially different from that in other countries, and it is likely you will not learn the same subject material. The program cannot guarantee you will receive a U.S. high school diploma during your exchange year, but will provide a record for the coursework you do complete.

10. Who organizes the program?

- a. American Councils for International Education, is proud to organize the High School in America (HSA) program. American Councils has been working on exchange programs for over 40 years. Together with our partners, we have helped young people from over 60 countries develop leadership skills.

Requests for a specific type of family or geographic area in the United States are not granted. Living with family members in the U.S. is strictly prohibited.
